DOUGLAS PARK'S GOOD DAY

Best Attendance So Far Views Excellent Racing.

Viva America Defeats Fruit Cake and Rancher in a Fast Race —Track Talk.

(By J. L. Dempsey.)

Louisville, Ky., September 25.—The excellent card provided its patrons by the Douglas Park track this morning proved irresistible to the vast throng of racing enthusiasts in this city, resulting in the best attendance of the present meeting. More perfect conditions for the sport could not be imagined and the brand of racing that developed was on a par with the best that has been seen in Kentucky this fall.

Finishes were of the thrilling sort, with the winner in doubt in most cases until the official placing. The small fields that started in six of the races were responsible for an absence of crowding and the beaten starters succumbed to superior ones and had no mishaps.

The Camp Zachary Taylor Purse of $1,500 at one mile was contested by a good band, with Viva America as the winner from Fruit Cake and Rancher after a stubborn battle. The Worthington filly raced in her best form, and under good riding first disposed of Rancher, which was her closest follower in the early running, and held her own with Fruit Cake when the Macomber filly challenged in the stretch.

Although favorites were again beaten steadily, the winners were supported in confidential style, and with the exception of Rhymer, which triumphed in the final race, in which McAdoo started at odds on, there were no outstanding surprises.

Williams Bros. again scored a double, their Korbly and Jovial, both ridden by J. Howard, accounting for their respective purses. Howard also won on Amalette. The followers of jockey Lunsford also fared well, the McLean rider landing a pair of winners during the afternoon.

McAdoo's overthrow was a hard jolt for the public. He seemed to outclass the ones that he met, but he was in a sulky mood and retired from contention unexpectedly when his chances for the victory appeared most promising.

The success of Korbly was also accomplished by the smallest margin and for a while his backers held grave misgivings, but he succeeded in shaking off Skniles Knob in the last strides.

John Murphy's Buncrana gave an excellent exhibition in the second race by being virtually left at the post and coming from far back in the last quarter to achieve a runaway victory. Her failure to leave the barrier was due to her propping at the start.

JOCKEY MAHER SUSPENDED.

Jockey J. Maher, who had the mount on Joe Stahr in the second race, was the first to be disciplined by starter Dade. He drew a three days' suspension for misbehavior at the post.

The program book of the Churchill Downs meeting, where racing begins next Monday, was distributed to owners this morning. Unlike Douglas Park, the purse offerings at Churchill Downs track have a uniform value of $1,000. The program arrangement at Douglas Park is on a graded scale, intended to give the better grade of horses more opportunity for earnings.

Jockey C. Brown, who rode with a fair measure of success at the recent Cheyenne meeting, was among the arrivals and made application for a license.

The horses in charge of J. W. May were among the arrivals this morning from New York and will be campaigned in Kentucky for the remainder of the fall season.

There were additions of horses from Lexington this morning and most of those intending to take part in the racing here and at Latonia have now succeeded in shipping from the Lexington track.

Al Muller, prominent sporting man and extensively interested in racing, was among today's visitors from New Orleans. He reports the outlook for a successful racing season next winter in the Crescent City as being most promising.

J. B. Respess reported the death of Deliver, which was being used at his Erlanger, Kentucky, farm as a broodmare.

Williams Bros., whose extensive band of thirty-two horses in training and ten yearlings are intended for winter racing, will divide their strings and campaign at New Orleans and Havana. Pete Williams and jockey Howard will be in charge of the Havana division, and Dick Williams will campaign the New Orleans division. The stable is also in quest of a rider to take to New Orleans.

Jockey Lunsford's stay in Kentucky will terminate next Saturday, trainer John F. Schorr, in charge of E. B. McLean's racers, having sent notification to the rider to report at Laurel not later than September 29.

Tomorrow has been designated as ladies' day and all ladies accompanied by an escort will be admitted free to the track as the guests of the management.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

B. J. T., Galesburg, Ill. In a general way if a layer accepts a wager he should pay if it turns out right, but if he refuses there is no remedy. There is no such thing as a "legal" wager in this state. All bets are illegal. His idea, no doubt, was that one wager should not win twice, something that is not customary.

R. B., Buffalo, N. Y. The Saratoga mile is not an elliptical mile. The start is out of a chute, which gives a straight run to the quarter post. After that the horses go to the finish on the main track with only two turns. Roughly estimated the difference is 1¼ seconds in favor of time. The track, however, is extremely fast and well kept.

BRIGHTON STABLE'S DISPERSAL TODAY

New York, September 25.—The Brighton Stable dispersal sale will be held at the Aqueduct course tomorrow at 1 p. m. The horses in training to be disposed of include Purchase, Flags, Lord Brighton, Toto, Earlocker, Everest, Home Sweet Home, Florence L., King Plaudit, Roderick Dhu, Clen Ryan, Mitchel May, George Eliot, Loyal Peter, Lackawanna, Houdini, Tiger Rose, John Powers and others. Twenty yearlings, including some of the pick of the 1918 sales which were bought regardless of expense, will also be sold at this sale.

WONDERFUL FINISH IN HAVRE RACE

Four Horses Closely Bunched at the End of a Thrilling Mile and a Quarter Contest.

Havre de Grace, Md., September 25.—The real feature in a racing way at Havre de Grace this afternoon was the finish of the mile and a quarter race, scarcely a length separating the first four horses as the winning line was crossed. Benevolent was the winner and, while he ran a game race, his performance was overshadowed by the wonderful race of Bar of Phoenix. The latter was away absolutely last, but went after his opponents with rare courage and finishing with terrific speed under Sande's energetic riding was gaining with every stride and just failed to overtake Benevolent. Dan was third but a short distance back of the first two, with Trial by Jury a close up fourth. The latter set the early pace at a great clip, the first mile being run in 1:37⅘ and the mile and a quarter in 2:05, which represents a new track record for the distance.

Today's sport began in auspicious fashion for the backers of favorites when Sylvano, the heavily supported first choice, scored a nose victory over Jill in the first race. Jill was the pacemaker and led to the final eighth, where he tired, and Sylvano, which had been in closest pursuit from the start, finishing with great speed, caught and passed the leader in the final strides.

The talent had the best of it again in the second race. Frank Wier's good filly Belle Roberts was their selection. She raced into an easy lead in the stretch and had things her own way thereafter. Back Bay was practically eliminated by getting away slowly.

The third race fell to Captain Ray, which did not lack for admirers, although Thorn Bloom was accorded the post of honor in the mutuels. Captain Ray's victory was easily achieved, no serious opposition developing after he had assumed the lead when entering the stretch. Fairly finished second after a performance of merit, coming from away back after a slow start.

Tombolo, carrying the colors of the Nevada Stock Farm, furnished an upset in the Belair Purse when he easily beat Celto and Corn Exchange. Tombolo showed a return to the good form he displayed early in the summer and had enough in reserve to withstand the fast closing rush of Celto. Aurum's race was a disappointment.

REFUGEE SCORES EASY VICTORY.

Another favorite to fall by the wayside was Say in the sixth race, Refugee, with Sande in the saddle, taking his measure in easy fashion.

Sandy McNaughton was a bit worried after working George Starr this morning, as the colt pulled up slightly lame. It developed that he had stepped on a stone, but the injury was of a slight nature, as the lameness disappeared while the horse was being cooled out. McNaughton will ship the Viau racers over to Laurel on Friday.

M. J. Winn returned from New York yesterday and will remain until after the opening of the Laurel meeting.

Trainer M. Daly informed Secretary Joseph McLennan that he had been authorized by Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords to state that she would be willing to enter her colt Routledge, winner of the Adirondack Handicap at Saratoga, in the special race which the Laurel management is getting up, provided the race was made a handicap with an entrance fee of $5,000.

Commander J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian sportsman and owner of Cudgel and Billy Kelly, has been taking rather an active part in the claiming races at Havre de Grace. He had a claim in for Medusa after she won yesterday, but S. A. Clopton retained the filly for J. O. Talbott on his claim of $1,215.

J. E. Woods, in whose name and colors Trial by Jury runs, made a claim for Goldcrest Boy yesterday, but owner J. G. Wagnon retained the horse on his claim of $1,150.

Several carloads of horses are expected to arrive at Laurel from New York during the next few days. In the consignment will be a division from J. Boden with the Triple Springs Farm string, W. P. Burch, W. Martin, J. S. Ward, Gwyn Tompkins with the E. M. Weld string, C. P. Winfrey, Rew Miller and S. C. Hildreth.

THE ARMY NEEDS THOROUGHBREDS

Colonel R. S. Chaplin of the British Army Remount Service, stationed at St. Louis, speaking of the possibilities for American breeders and their aid to the army, says: "Missouri and the western states have wonderful possibilities as a horse raising section, and yet I find a deplorable scarcity of the type fit for cavalry use. I can get a good horse for heavy and field artillery, but the lighter types are bad. My regiment in England had the pick of the Irish hunters, which are developed by a top cross of the thoroughbred, and I rather blush for some of the stuff I am compelled to send over. The horse is still an absolute necessity in warfare. In England we have found that the thoroughbred is the essential foundation for the perfect army horse, and that is why racing is fostered by the government and why we are racing even during the war. I understand there is no racing in Missouri. That probably accounts for the scarcity of the type of horse essential for cavalry use. If horse racing was conducted in Missouri as it is in England you would probably see the breeding of thoroughbreds in your state."

LAUREL'S RICH STAKES AND PURSES

Program Book Reveals that Close to $300,000 Will Be Distributed During Meeting.

Laurel, Md., September 25.—The program book for the first nine days of the Maryland State Fair's autumn meeting at Laurel Park, which will run through the month of October, that has just been issued by Colonel Matt J. Winn, reveals a liberality comparing favorably with the heydey of the Coney Island Jockey Club. The twenty-two stakes which closed recently and attracted upward of 1,000 nominations from the most representative of American racing stables will aggregate $44,000, all added money. One hundred and sixty-seven overnight races which will be decided in the course of the twenty-seven days of racing will have an aggregate value of about $185,000 and the entrance and starting fees in the stakes will swell this grand total of added money to about $275,000.

No purse at Laurel Park will have a smaller value in added money than $1,000. Twenty-five or thirty of the overnight races will pay $1,200 each in added money. That this program will attract to Laurel Park for October racing the greatest horses in the land there can be no doubt. Among the three-year-olds and three-year-olds and over named for the important races are Roamer, Westy Hogan, Midway, Omar Khayyam, Ticket, Stromboli, Bondage, Eyelid, Johren, Sunny Slope, Lucullite, Exterminator, The Porter, Sun Briar, Corn Tassel, Highland Lad, Motor Cop, Hand Grenade, War Machine, Walnut Hall, Fairy Wand, Regal Lodge, Crimper, Hollister, Starmaster, Cudgel, etc. The great two-year-olds named for the juvenile specials are Billy Kelly, Eternal, High Time, Terentia, Sweep On, Dunboyne, Lion d'Or, Routledge, Star Hampton, Lord Brighton, Be Frank, Purchase, Pen Rose, Sea Pirate, Sir Barton, Pigeon Wing, Vindex, Hannibal, Thunderstorm, Yurucari, Ute, Stickling, Bright Lights, Peter, Passing Shower, etc. And all of these runners will come to Laurel Park seasoned by summer and early autumn campaigning. The jumpers that will take part in the steeplechasing that have won renown elsewhere include Kingstown Pier, The Brook, Brooks, St. Charlcote, Weldship, Bet, Pebeto, Shannon River, Robert Oliver, etc.

Colonel Winn is already at Laurel Park preparing for the October meeting. Laurel Park was used by the engineer corps of the army as a training place through last winter and spring, 40,000 soldiers having trained there. But the soldiers left on July 1, and the stables are all ready now for the reception of the thoroughbreds.

STAKE DATES FOR JAMAICA MEETING

The other stakes filled well and whatever they may lack numerically is made up by the good class of the entries. The order of the running of the different stake features is as follows:

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

C. E. Mickelwaite will not race at Louisville, but will keep his horses at Lexington for a week or so and then ship them to Latonia.

For the opening day at Churchill Downs Monday, September 30, besides the Falls City Handicap of $1,200 added, the other six races will have purses of $1,000 each, three of them being of added money variety.

Four of the six winners at Aqueduct Tuesday were English-bred, Hollister and War Cloud being the produce of J. B. Joel's stud, while Torchbearer and Kiss Again are from the famous Sledmere Stud of Sir Mark Sykes.

Edward B. McLean, whose stable is now racing in the east and who owns the Cincinnati Enquirer and Washington Post, has been given a commission as major in the intelligence department of the United States army.

W. E. Randolph of Lexington, Ky., owns Hanrose, the dam of Pen Rose, and has recently sold Pen Rose's brother for $2,500. Hanrose is nineteen years old, is by Hanover—Miss Melton, by Macduff, and was bred by the late Milton Young. The best of her earlier children were Rosedale and Debutante.

Billy Myer, superintendent of the Saratoga track and to whom credit is due for the reconstruction of that course into the fastest in the country, was a fighter of note in his younger days. One of his greatest battles was with Jack McAuliffe in 1889, the fight lasting for sixty-four rounds, McAuliffe winning by a knockout.

Up to July 14 the stable of Baron Oppenheim, which is trained by the American trainer Withers McCreery, led all competitors in German racing with an aggregate of 309,000 marks, or approximately $61,800. The leading winner in the stable is the three-year-old Marmor, by Saphir—Mahalla, by St. Serf, which, among other races, won the Hamburg Grand Prize of 125,000 marks and the German Derby of the same value.

Sky Man, the Aeronaut—Tranid colt, which won a good race at long odds last Friday at Aqueduct, is small, and after being tried for his breeder, the late lamented Schuyler L. Parsons, by William Karrick was given up as a bad job. After Mr. Parsons' death Sky Man was sold to the Quincy Stable for $500 and came along so slowly that he was given away to John Moran. The Quincy Stable trainer, Jim Fitzsimmons, agreed to train him for Moran, and though backward early, Sky Man improved so much of late and could run so well on a soft track that he was saved for such going. Robinson was put up and his victory was the result. Mr. Parsons raced Tranid, Sky Man's dam. She is a young Voter mare and was a good mud runner. So was his sire, Aeronaut.

SURPRISE IN FEATURE RACE

Unconsidered Runes Carries Off the Stonybrook Stakes.

Victory Due in a Measure to Knapp's Good Riding—Mishap in Steeplechase.

New York, September 25.—The beautiful uncertainty of racing was strikingly exemplified at Aqueduct today when the unconsidered six-year-old Runes, the rank outsider in the betting, won the Stonybrook Selling Stakes, the feature of an excellent program. The only recommendation in the favor of Runes was that the veteran Bill Knapp was in the saddle, but even Runes, however, showed a vastly improved performance over his recent races, and although being outpaced in the early running and coming wide on the last turn, finished with a brilliant stretch rush which, under Knapp's masterly riding, landed him a winner by a small margin over the tiring Assume. Knapp was given a great ovation on returning to the scales. Jyntee was the favorite for the race, but after displaying high speed in the early running, found the distance too long and finished unplaced. After Jyntee tired Assume, which was heavily supported, flashed into the lead, but his heavy impost told on him when hard pressed by the ultimate winner.

Chilly, cloudy weather prevailed today, but had little effect on the attendance, a crowd of no mean proportions being present.

S. C. Hildreth's Tracery colt Alibi proved an easy winner of the mile dash that opened the day's proceedings. He was much the best, was backed to the exclusion of the other starters and made good in convincing fashion.

Moccasin III. appeared to outclass those opposed to him in the steeplechase, so much so that he went to the post a 2 to 5 favorite, something unusual in a jumping race. His supporters were, however, doomed to disappointment, as Moccasin III. struck the sixth jump heavily and jumped poorly thereafter, the mishap probably disabling him. The winner turned up in Traditioner, which drew away into a big lead after going to the front in the final turn of the field.

Judge Wingfield and jockey Frank Robinson were the winning combination in the mile and five-sixteenths race. Barry Shannon was indulged with the lead to the final eighth, while Robinson saved ground on the turns with Judge Wingfield and held him in reserve for the real test. After the pacemaker was disposed of, Judge Wingfield drew away into a safe lead.

HOUSEMAID VICTIM OF INTERFERENCE.

Lively was the fortunate winner of the fifth race over Housemaid, heavily supported and a victim of much interference. She was surely best. Subahdar, the medium of a betting coup, also met with some early interference and showed a good performance, but was evidently short.

In the Roslyn Handicap Mr. Vosburgh, the official handicapper, has classed War Cloud an inferior to Sun Briar, Jack Hare Jr. and Sunny Slope, all three conceding him weight from eight to five pounds respectively. This would make War Cloud fifth on the list of three-year-olds, as Johren has beaten him at even weights and has conceded him weight in the most recent handicaps, War Cloud declining the issue. It is probable that War Cloud and Sunny Slope will have some battles at Laurel, as both are entered in three handicaps.

E. R. Bradley's Kalitan will be sold tomorrow in conjunction with the sale of the horses from the Brighton Stable.

Mortimer Lynch has been absent from the clubhouse for the past day or two. He is suffering from an attack of nervousness. The same trouble struck him last year about this time.

Several owners are splitting their stables, leaving some of their horses at the Long Island tracks and shipping the others to Laurel. There will be ample for both districts until the close of the season.

Speaking of this year's crop of two-year-olds, Mr. Vosburgh classes Billy Kelly the best by a considerable margin.

"I was not quite positive of his value," said Mr. Vosburgh, "until he had run a couple of races at Saratoga. After that his ability was convincing. In my opinion he could have won all the races in which he failed to start had he been sent to the post. He could carry 140 pounds and win races."

Speaking of Purchase and his habit of swerving, George Odom places the blame on the blinkers and he will remove them if he ever starts him again.

"The horse has been bumped once or twice at the start of races and it has made him timid, fearing he is going to get hit again. He cannot see the horses nearest to him and he is afraid. No horse could work better when he is alone and I attribute his swerving to nothing else but fear of being bumped at the start."

James Boden has sent all his horses to Pimlico excepting Judge Wingfield.

The division of flat racers of the J. E. Widener stable will campaign through the Jamaica meeting, while the jumpers will be shipped to Laurel.

The G. A. Cochran yearlings and older horses, with the exception of Fairy Wand and a two-year-old filly, will be sold at public auction in the near future.

STEEPLECHASING THIS FALL IN FRANCE

According to present appearances owners, trainers and riders of jumpers in France will be much better off in the near future than their confreres on this side of the channel unless our government sees cause to reconsider its embargo on racing under N. H. Rules. From October 3 to November 30 there are to be twelve days' steeplechasing and hurdle racing at Maisons-Laffitte. The Societe des Steeplechases de France has lost no time in publishing complete programs for the whole series, the races varying in value from 100 sovereigns to nearly 300 sovereigns apiece. On the opening day there are to be four hurdle races and a steeplechase, all of which, except a selling affair over hurdles, are confined to horses foaled and reared in France. Similar conditions prevail with respect to later events. The racing will be, as heretofore, of the "test" order, which, however, is impossible in this country, for there is no state aid here and no wealthy societies to offer such a sum as 10,000 sovereigns as is being done in France for the encouragement of obstacle racing by the Societe des Steeplechases.—London Sportsman.

LAUREL PARK A PLACE OF BEAUTY

Many Improvements Made Since Last Meeting—Track Expected to Be Faster than Saratoga.

Laurel, Md., September 25.—When the admirers of thoroughbred racing gather at Laurel Park next Tuesday to view the running of the inaugural program of the Maryland State Fair's annual October meeting, they will be agreeably astonished at the magnitude of the plant. Improvements will total over $50,000, making, all told, approximately $300,000 expended on the attractive home of the Maryland State Fair.

While work has been under way for weeks on every part of Laurel Park enclosure, the track proper has not been overlooked. It has been raised in some sections as much as five feet, and the horsemen who have visited it lately are unanimous in their opinion that it will be as fast as Saratoga, where so many records went by the boards.

The Laurel Park track is in the hands of a master superintendent, Frank Keegan. This Keegan is the same individual who prepared the Juarez track for record-breaking performances. With the cream of two-year-olds as well as the older divisions in attendance here next month, track records are destined to fall.

There will be special features at Laurel Park and if one in question materializes it will vie in question with that memorable clash of Omar Khayyam and Hourless.

An innovation which will be appreciated by the clubhouse members at Laurel Park this fall will be the erection of a covered walk from the auto path to the clubhouse and the enlargement of the northern end of the porch.

Cemented walks have taken the place of boards; the beautiful judges' stand has been raised on a foundation of concrete, the pari-mutuel emporium enlarged, new fences and palatial stables for the carriers of the silks of wealthy sportsmen have been erected. The flower beds and greens, which put a picturesque tinge to the Maryland State Fair's plant, will be more profuse than ever with nothing but the best at the disposal of those who find an exhilarating afternoon's enjoyment at the races.

FAIR GROUNDS' WAR CONTRIBUTION

New Orleans, La., September 25.—"Food Will Win the War; Don't Waste It."

That's the sign which the National Farm and Live Stock Fair Association, an organization fostered by the Business Men's Racing Association, wrote over the big entrance to the Fair Grounds last fall. And Supervisor I. B. Rennyson has seen that the Fair Grounds has done "it's bit."

At present an up-to-date baling machine is busy with 3,000 bales of hay that was raised in the infield at the Fair Grounds this summer. And about 150 bushels of corn are ready for harvest. That also was raised in the infield. The Business Men's Racing Association tendered the hay to the quartermaster department here on learning of a shortage of hay, and it is possible the government will take the entire output. Supervisor Rennyson has invited the pupils of McDonogh School No. 28 to see the baling—an interesting process—and is expecting dozens of them at the Fair Grounds some day next week.
